25 YEAR RE-REVIEW

I. SIGNIFICANT ITEMS

None

II. OTHERS

B

A. Training Officers of the DDS (Commo and Security) and the O/DCI (Cable Secretariat) who had applicants scheduled for the Clandestine Services Review course (14-22 December) were notified by C/AIB of the ineligibility of their candidates for the course. This action was taken after the decision, reported on 2 December, that the CSR is for CS personnel only. None of the three TOs offered protestations. Alternative instruction was proposed: attendance at the Intelligence Review Course or at the DDP portion of the Operations Support Course.

B. The December issue of the OTR Bulletin is at the printers; so too, the Schedule of OTR's Courses for the period January to June 1966. We have asked for priority attention to both publications.

C. At the request of [ ] of SIC, DC/AIB will prepare a Special Bulletin to announce the Basic Country Survey of the USSR, especially to note the plan to offer the course in the Headquarters Building; giving it at headquarters may be a factor in getting people interested in taking the course.

currently being carried out--or even in the planning stage--within departments or agencies in the U.S. Government. The Liaison Office, OCR will work directly with the Plans Office on the request; [ ] plans to send this office copies of the information he gets from LO/OCR.

E. [ ]

[ ] joined the SO/TR and three members of AIB in a discussion of operating procedures basic to the organization of courses
[ ] The meeting was productive; its coverage will be the subject of a memorandum to AR/TR.

F. Critiques on Project Helpful

There have been seven replies. The consensus is that the project was beneficial, well-organized, "professional."
The most common adverse criticism was that the program was too hurried; it was suggested that it be extended by a half day or a whole day. Another recurring suggestion was that bus transportation be provided to and from Langley each day.

G. [ ] who will report for duty with the Instructional Staff of PM Training, [ ], was briefed on the organization and activities of OTR.
